Weekly Reflection.

"A sense of achievement"

"Look at what I can do mammy!" is an expression often heard from youngsters as they discover they have achieved something or accomplished something on their own for the first time. This sense of achievement remains with people throughout life. Students set out to achieve good results, sports people set out to be the best they can be with personal bests and records and so on. Adults too like to feel they have got on well in life and at the end of life can look back on all that has been achieved over their lifetime. Recognition of achievements is important among young people in particular as it helps them to grow and develop.

In the Gospel today the disciples whom Jesus sent out in twos last week have come back and they excitedly tell Jesus all that they have been able to do. He lets them have their say but then tells them to go away and give thanks to God for the gifts they have been given.

Sometimes we believe we achieve our goals or our dreams by our own devices. This can lead to selfishness, self-centredness, and lack of care for others. If we can accept our blessings as the outworking of the gifts God has given us, then we will grow in wisdom and maturity.

A sense of achievement is a great blessing, but we should always be ready to give thanks for all our gifts.

Fr Shane.
