Weekly Reflection

The King of Mercy

The Feast of Christ the King challenges us to focus on what type of society we would wish would belong to. Mercy is a term that has lost some of its significance as we have become wealthier and more individualistic in our lifestyles. Mercy primarily is proof that God loves us – our faith is an ongoing development of our relationship with him.

Traditionally we are called to exercise mercy by the seven Corporal Works of Mercy and the Seven Spiritual Works of Mercy. It might be no harm to remind ourselves of those:

Corporal Works of Mercy:

- to feed the hungry
- to give drink to the thirsty
- to clothe the naked
- to welcome the stranger
- to heal the sick
- to visit the imprisoned
- to bury the dead

Spiritual Works of Mercy:

- to counsel the doubtful
- to instruct the ignorant
- to admonish sinners
- to comfort the afflicted
- to forgive offences
- to patiently bear those who do us ill.
- to pray for the living and the dead.

This is the type of Kingdom Jesus presents.

Fr Shane.
