Weekly Reflection.

'What makes a perfect marriage?'

Both the First Reading from the Book of Genesis and Mark's Gospel today present a clear-cut definition of marriage as understood by our Church. Both texts quote the lines; 'A man leaves his father and mother and joins himself to his wife, and they become one body.' That does not leave much room for misunderstanding.

One of the special roles a priest has is meeting a couple who are intending to get married and to witness the love and excitement at first hand is such a privilege, as the associated paperwork has to be attended to, and then the celebration of the wedding in the Church is an occasion of unconfined joy and happiness. All of us wish the newly weds every health and happiness in the years ahead and in many cases the couple learn to grow in love and cope with the challenges of whatever life throws at them. My own late parents were married for just short of seventy years and indeed over that time they had become one in their thoughts, feelings, beliefs, and values. So many of us are so fortunate to belong to such families.

However, there are occasions when the joy, excitement and happiness disappears and the married couple cannot achieve the goal of happy ever after, for a myriad of reasons. We must never become judgemental on the difficulties that life has presented to them.

What makes a perfect marriage?

Fr Shane.

Altar Servers Recruitment: May I take this opportunity to say, 'Thank you' and 'Well done' to our teams of Servers and their parents, for enabling our liturgies to be enhanced with young people serving at the Altar over the past two years. Some of the senior Servers are retiring and we wish them well for the future when they may become part of the other ministries in our Church. We are now seeking new recruits from 5th and 6th class to come forward to join the teams we have in place. The priests have already spoken to the pupils in the schools and some children and parents have already signed up for this. If you wish to become an Altar Server, or if parents would like to find out more about this wonderful ministry, please speak to one of the priests or the office staff. All Church activities for children are under the direction and guidance of the Child Safeguarding Committee in the parish.

Director of Safeguarding: We wish to inform you that there have been significant changes in the leadership of the Diocesan Safeguarding team in the Diocese, since the beginning of August. Martha Smyth has stepped down as Director of Safeguarding but retains her role as Designated Liaison Person. Deirdre Boyle who is currently Chairperson of the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee has also now been appointed as Director of Safeguarding. We sincerely thank Martha for the professionalism and generosity she brought to the role, over the past few years. Martha has provided great leadership especially in relation to the Review of Safeguarding in the Diocese which was carried out by the NBSCCCI. We assure both Martha and Deirdre of our continued prayerful support in the time ahead.
